

Records & documents required to process and issue No Objection Certificate

1. The online application will be submitted to the Director General of Police and Director General, Karnataka State Fire & Emergency Services.
2. Scanned copies of the documents to establish the hold over the property including registered G.P.A.
3. Documents:-
 - a. Site Plan
 - b. Ground floor Plan
 - c. Built up area statement
 - d. Section
 - e. Elevation
 - f. Schematic drawing of firefighting system
 - g. Schematic drawing of fire detecting system
 - h. Typical floor plan indicating the fire prevention and firefighting provisions including location of water tanks for firefighting and domestic use and details of water source that are proposed to be incorporated in the building.

4. After the receipt of the online application with above documents, the application will be forwarded to the jurisdictional inspection officer. The inspection officer will inspect the site and will scrutinize the drawings regarding incorporating of all fire Fighting and Firefighting measures and submit his report to the chief office.

5. In the chief office the report will be studied in detail and after approval by the DGP & DG, an amount of fee to be paid will be intimated and the applicant has to pay the amount through online, thereafter NOC will be issued by the department.

<><><><><><>